25. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON [] OL, stopped by to discuss the request from the office of Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.) for information on the criteria that CIA uses in selecting locations for offices in the U.S. With this background, and after discussion with George Cary, I called Lisa Libbey, in Mr. Harrington's office, and arranged to stop by to talk with her on 11 November. She immediately said that she would be pleased to receive me, but that she didn't think that the request should present any particular problems.

26. (Internal Use Only - CM) BRIEFING I left word for Werner Brandt, in the office of Representative Tom Foley (D., Wash.), to discuss further Mr. Foley's interest in a briefing on the Soviet grain situation. Brandt had not called back by the end of the day.

27. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON Jim Conrow, in the office of Representative C. W. Bill Young (R., Fla.), called to ask for a copy of a map showing the major shipping lanes of the world. I suggested to Conrow that since the information was unclassified he might well find that the Congressional Research Service would have it and could get it to him right away. He said he would check CRS. I also said that I would inquire to see if we had such a map and let him know. I referred the matter to [] NFAC/CSS.

29. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON George Winnet, of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Congressional Relations, Department of State, said that he would send a copy of the State Department's reply to the letter that it received from Senator James Allen (D., Ala.) concerning information given by the State Department to the Cuban government. I told Winnet that we would like to have State's reply as background for our response to Senator Allen's letter on the same subject. Winnet indicated that the drafter of the letter was Wayne Smith, of the State Department's Cuban desk.
